Re: Information Request:

Honorable Judge Gerber:

I started my employment with General Motors Corporation in 1984 and worked over 15 years for GM, Corp. until 1999 when I was transferred to Delphi Corp. because of the GM spun-off of Delphi as an independent entity. I retired from Delphi on the 1st of January 2009.

During the course of my employment I became interested in and started researching the overall operations of the not-for-profit corporations that were jointly established and administered pursuant UAW national collective bargaining agreements (CBAs) between the union and automakers. However, being a GM employee I concentrated most of my efforts researching the UAW/GM Human Resource Center in Auburn Hills, Michigan, which was later renamed the UAW/GM Center for Human Resources ("UAW/GM CHR") and was relocated to Walker Avenue, in Detroit, Michigan.

The purpose of my request is simple; it is for education reasons, I am assisting a college student with his research for his doctoral dissertation

After GM sought protection from its creditors by filing bankruptcy, I became curious how the UAW/GM "CHR" was addressed by the GM bankruptcy process. After reviewing the list of creditors, reading nearly 5,000 docket titles filed by the SDBC of New York, and after reading the Master Sales Agreement between General Motors Corporation (Motor Liquidation Corp.) and the U.S. Treasury, I failed to find even a mention of the UAW/GM "CHR" let alone how it was treated (addressed) by GM and UAW attorneys, the U.S. Treasury, the Car Czar or Judge Robert E. Gerber for that matter.

The latter is unique; for I know GM is the sole financial supporter of the UAW/GM "CHR". I cannot believe the Treasury, the Car Czar and or the Court did not address this issue because the amount of money contributed by GM annually is staggering; it is over 100 million dollars a year. (RE: Attachments, most recent 990 IRS tax forms available by the IRS relating to the UAW/GM "CHR", 2008, 990 Tax Form not available yet).

As mentioned earlier this an information request. If you would, please answer all the following questions in their numerical order.

1) Was GM's philanthropic contributions to UAW/GM "Center for Human Resources" addressed during any of the bankruptcy proceedings?

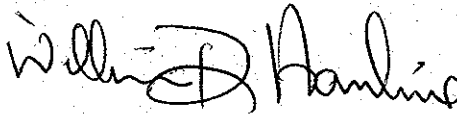

2) I understand why Judge Berber issued an ordered approving the UAW Retirees' Settlement Agreement which was also the UAW-GM "CBA" prior to his order approving the Master Sales Agreement. However, Judge Berber's order approving the UAW/NGMCO "CBA" (Retirees Settlement Agreement) simultaneously abolished the old joint funding guidelines between GM Corp. and the UAW, and in turn created a new parameter for the funding of the UAW/GM "CHR". Please, identify any and all court documentation, whether dockets and/or transcripts, where I can find language pertaining to those changes? (e.g., such as any court mandated reductions in the new GM Company's annual contributions to the CHR if any)

3) I have in my possession written statements from UAW and GM officials that claim the UAW/GM "Center for Human Resources" is an independent entity, separate from GM and the UAW. Since it is a separate entity, why wasn't the UAW/GM "CHR" identified as a creditor?

I understand how busy you must be, but I do hope you will cordially respond to the three questions above in a timely manner. I will be happy to pay for any copying, however, before you send me hard copies and since GM dockets were made transparent on the internet, I would appreciate you sending me the titles and docket numbers by email before any copying is done. Furthermore, please notify me of any cost to me before fulfilling my request.

Thank you for your assistance and help

For some reason the standards set by President Obama's Auto Task Force seem very anti-worker and un-American. If not, why did the Task Force find a 100 million dollar a year philanthropy project that GM is committed to more important than forcing GM to drop that project and use that money to live up to its social and contractual commitments GM made to its workers and communities GM operated in over the decades? The UAW/GM "CHR" is of very little value to or help to the city of Detroit; instead it only serves as a conduit to benefit and relieve General Motors Co. of its burden to make the payrolls for the administration cost of various non-profit employee programs and other corporate sponsored programs such as NASCAR.

I called then emailed the U.S. Trustees whose names were recorded on the bankruptcy documents requesting information about the UAW/GM "Center for Human Resources" (Re: Please read the letter attached to this email) I believe if you were to contact them and Judge Berber of the Southern District Bankruptcy Court of New York and especially the Car Czar of Obama's' Auto Task Force, I would come closer to receiving meaningful answers to my request for information. The U.S. Trustees are listed below:
